

Save: Aug. 27 - 6 pm

HUMAN TRAFFICKING:
What WE CAN DO About It!

Meet the Panelists!

Brian Wo is Director of Partnerships for the Bay Area Anti-Trafficking Coalition. The BAATC equips individuals, civic groups, and non-profits with best practices in the fight against human trafficking in the San Francisco Bay Area and beyond. Brian has 12 years of ministry experience. www.BAATC.org

Adriana Panting is a Sexual Assault Advocate and Anti-Sexual Trafficking Specialist at the Tri Valley Haven, Livermore. Adriana connects survivors to shelter, provides crisis counseling, and appropriate referrals. She is a member of H.E.A.T. Watch (Human Exploitation and Trafficking Watch) a collaboration among providers, law enforcement, & district attorneys. www.trivalleyhaven.org

Kathy Wilson is the Development Director at New Day for Children. NDC provides family-like environments where survivors under age 18 live and receive counseling, academics, & fun days until they are healthy and prepared to live at home again, or until adulthood. www.newdayforchildren.org

Moderator - Rev. Dr. Kim Risedorph is Lead Pastor of Asbury United Methodist Church. Prior to becoming a pastor, she was a professor at Nebraska Wesleyan University. She is devoted to tending to people's spiritual journeys and walking alongside each person as they navigate their lives' paths. asburylive.org

Sunday, August 27th

5 PM Potluck | 6 PM Free Panel

Discussion

Asbury United Methodist Church

4743 East Avenue, Livermore, CA

Fellowship Hall 925-447-1950

Sponsored by the Asbury United Methodist Women