Cost: $140 individuals / $175 couples

Introduction to Judaism is an overview of the basics of Jewish beliefs, history, and traditions. This survey course is appropriate for those curious about Judaism, as well as those who would like an adult level understanding of that which they learned as a child.

Topics include:

- The Jewish Bible
- Jewish History
- Jewish Holidays
- Jewish Life Cycle Ceremonies
- Jewish Prayer
- Jewish Beliefs and Theology
- Israel and Jewish Peoplehood
- The Major Movements of Judaism

Instructor: Rabbi Laurence Elis Milder, Ph.D.

Rabbi Milder holds a Ph.D. in Near Eastern and Judaic Studies from Brandeis University. He has taught Bible, Jewish history and Jewish thought at the University of Maine, Bangor Theological Seminary and the American Hebrew Academy.
